Online Resources for Marching Band

We will do our best to create video resources that students can (and should) use to get started with marching band. The material we cover will be useful for both returning and new members. We hope to have these videos ready to go by the end of July, so please make sure that you are checking your emails frequently.

By going through, and practicing, the materials presented in the videos, you will help to put the WHOLE marching band in a better place at the first rehearsal. So please take the time to utilize these tools that we are working hard to make available to you. Thank you!
